“We thank God for the ministry of Messengers! From beginning to end, onstage and offstage, we encountered a God-centered, Bible-saturated, prayer-bathed team of individuals with a deep and sincere passion for seeing real people find hope in God. Their commitment to excellence is really nothing less than a humble determination to glorify God with all their being. Watching them is to worship with them. Worshipping with them is to join with them in spreading the excellencies of our Savior. May God continue to bless these skilled servants and their ministry with His Spirit’s power for the joy of the nations!”

“Messengers, your biblical story telling style awakened the story telling heritage of many in our congregation who are from the nations. The fiction associated with dramatization was eliminated. The direct use of scripture was penetrating and engaging, bringing the audience face to face with Jesus. This happened each time you came. Thank you for revealing the double edged truth of God’s Love.”

“The play was wonderful. This was my first time to witness a gospel drama where the dialogue is predominantly from the Word of God. It was so powerful it struck your heart with every word that they said. 20-25 young people prayed to receive Christ. I will never forget the wonderful experience I had with The Messengers. Praise and Glory to God!”
